Given, Arneld and Chesley, of his bureau, a board to inquire whether the stamps for spirits now in use are sufficient for all purposes under the law and for the public service, and whether any of the several new devices now urged upon the Commissioner for adoption w.ll serve a better purpose than the stamps already in use. It is understood that a heavy pressure has been brought to bear in favor of one particular invention, but whether its backers will be able to carry their point or not remains to be seen.

PATENTS.-The Board of Examiners have considered and disposed of the following applications for extensions of patents: Refused application of William E. Ward, machine for making bolts; Jonathan F. Barrett, method of raising and lowering cutters and harvesters; Hiram Tucker, spring bed bottom, and S. T. Thomas, loom. The patents of S. T. Thomas, of a loom, William Adamson, sand-paper cutting machine, and Addison P. Brown, selfadjusting wind mill, have each been extended for seven years.

ACCIDENT .- Alderman, portly and jolly and fine, on his way yesterday homeward to dine, walking up Seventh street, just above L, trod on an orange peel slipping, and fell; no joints luxating and breaking no bones; swearing no oaths and indulging no groans; arose to his feet and cheerily said, could be mate choice be would not choose that bed; nor did it please his good judgment or taste, getting to bed in such unseemly haste. Quoth his companion, "I think, sir, 'tis plain, though there's no bed you can suffer no pain: lie where you will, sir, you'll sure find repose, cushioned so soft on your warm adipose."

MR. WILLIAM P. MELLEN, who during the war was Chief Special Agent of the Treasury Department in relation to captured and abandoned property, and since its dose Special Attorney of the United States, closed his official connection with the Government to-day. During his incumbency in office Mr. Mellen enjoyed to an unusual extent the confidence of Secretary Chase and his successors, and leaves the service with his accounts, covering some six millions of dollars, balanced and closed and a reputation for rare ability, industry, and integrity. FROM CUBA. Spanish Troops Dying from Fever-More Fighting - Fillibusters - 40,000 More Spanish Troops Needed-An American Fillibuster Shot.

NEW YORK, July 2.-Advices from Puerto Principe to the 22d ul imo state that the condition of the Spanish troops at that time was dreadful. The hospitals were full, and on an average two deaths occurred daily. A foraging party, 150 strong, were driven back into the city, and 40 were sent to the hospital sick The patriots captured a detachment of 100 regulars at the first station from Principe.

The regiment of Catalan volunteers has 200 on the sick list Quesada was actively operating in the vicinity. The Spaniards attribute his successes to an accession of fillibusters, and state that 40,000 more troops are needed. The Spanish garrison is disheartened. An American named Speakman, one of the crew of the "Grapeshot," has been shot at Santiago. The American Consul asked for a delay of the execution, which was refused. The matter has been referred to the American Government.

LATER. Mutiny of Volunteers-They Seize and Imprison a General.

HAVANA. July 2.-It is reported that the Catalan volunteers, gnarding the line of the Neuvitas Raisroad, have mutinied and refuse to guard the line any longer. They demanded of their Colonel to be placed in active service, end the Colonel presented the claim to General Letona, at Puerto Principe, who immediately arrested him. The volunteers then marched to Puerto Principe, liberated their Colonel, and seized and imliberated their Colonel, and seized and imprisoned Letona. It is expected that the Cat-alan and local volunteers will try to shoot General Letona.

THE LONDON TIMES ON THE ALA-BAMA CLAIMS AGAIN.

LONDON, July 2 .- The Times. in reviewing the revenue returns, sees no reason for dis-quietude on account of her relations between Great Britain and foreign countries. The most important matters to business men are the state of her relations with America in regard to the Alabama question, and the present condition of France. Johnson's negotiations were not entirely futile; they have demonstrated England's willingness to make reasonable concessions, and henceforth it will be impossible to extract a grievance from her acts or demeanor. Americans feel this, and, at present, have no desire to push the question

STEAMBOAT COLLISION AT CLEVE. LAND. Loss of Life.

CLEVELAND, O., July 2 .- At ten o'clock last evening, the tag Ripon, while steaming up the river, struck a small ferry boat which was crossing the river with ten or twelve passengers, and shivered it to fragments. From three to five persons are supposed to have been drowned. The body of Martin O'Donnell is the only one that has been recovered. The names of the others lost are unknown.

MANIFESTO OF THE REPUBLICAN JUNTA'IN SPAIN. MADRID, July 2 .- The Republican Junta New Castile has issued a manifesto against the navy policy of a portion of the Ministers and their disregard of individual rights. The manifesto recommends reorganization, and affirms the right of in-urrection. THE BALTIMORE SAENGERFEST. PHILADELPHIA, July 2.—Eighteen German singing societies of Philadelphia, comprising nearly five hund, ed members, will take part in the eleventh Saengerfest at Baltimore, from the 10th to 15th of this month. They will leave on the 10th in a special train. POLICEMAN SHOT.

LOUISVILLE. June 2.—Last night John O'Conneil was shot and instantly killed by James Hendricks, who was under the belief that he was pursuing a thief. Both men were members of the Metropolitan Police.

A BOY KILLED WITH A KNIPE THROWN AT HIM BY AN ENRAGED PLAYPELLOW .- A sad affair, resulting in the death of a young poy named Thomas Curle, occurred lately. The deceased and Timothy Dedee were engaged in play when a quarrel arose between them. Dodee flew into a violent passion, and drawing a common knife, opened it, and hurled it, point foremost, at his companion. The wespon took effect in Curie's left side, making a deep incision. He died on Monday. Hearing of the death of Curle, the police undertook to find and arrest Dodee. The latter hearing of this fact, concealed himself under a barn on a spot known as Goose Island, and when found there by the officers refused, and when found there by the officers, refused to come forth until a revolver was pointed at him and the holder declared he would fire unless he (Dodee) came out instantly .- Chicago Journal.

BANKBUP FOY — The last amendment of the Bankrupt Law provides that in all proceedings commenced after the first day of January, 1869, no discharge that he granted to a debtor whose assets shall not be equal to fifty per centum of the claim proved against his estate, upon which he shall be liable as principal dettor. This clause does not, however, shat out from the benefit of the law all poor debtors, for it further provides that certain petitioners, and all was comply with certain conditions, can receive their discharges, though they may have no assets. Notwithstanding the provision, in view of its limitations and exceptions, debtors without assets are still applying for the benefit of the law in all parts of the country.

Persons in this District who still wish to avail themselves of its benefit, and who have no assets, should examine carefully whether they are included in the terms of the limitation. The subscriber will give information on this subject at all times without charge.
